CHILDREN

“My dad came here on a visa. Then decided to bring our family over. We came over for a better opportunity, a better life, a better education. I went to Annie Sullivan Elementary School. After school a bus would take us to the Boys & Girls Club each day. I just needed a place to stay until my parents got off work. The Boys & Girls Club was a perfect fit for me because it had basketball and all of the activities I needed. There were a lot of kids from East Africa that we didn’t know that came to the Club. So it became a place for us to come together, spend time and be comfortable,” said a Boys & Girls Club participant.

VULNERABLE ADULTS

“This fall, the Rake the Town crew came to rake my yard. Due to the high winds and the 5” of snow, they were unable to rake. They said they would get it done the next Friday. The snow was not gone yet. So, I figured I would not get my leaves up. Here on Wednesday, a large group of people came with rakes, leaf blowers, a trailer to rake up leaves, and a large truck to put the leaves in. They all worked so hard, and efficient. I was overwhelmed. That is a wonderful service, and I can’t thank the workers enough they did a wonderful job. Thank you for providing this service,” said a client of Workers on Wheels.

PEOPLE IN CRISIS

“Our kids have established positive relationships through counseling and continue to learn how to take care of themselves mentally and physically. We continue to grow as their parents and as spouses through counseling. We have had support to get us through many evaluations and an autism diagnosis for our younger daughter. We continually learn how to better ourselves individually and as a family. But above all we are reminded that needing and asking for help are not weaknesses. We are reminded that we are good people. Our family is grateful for everything we have been blessed with from Avera Family,” said a client of Avera Family Wellness Program.
