106 older adults who are seeking employment were provided assistance in their job search through Active Generations.

271 care givers of adult loved ones were provided with support through Active Generation's Caregiver Case Management.

19 older adults were provided with a day program for individuals living with Alzheimer's disease or other types of dementia that is offered in a residential setting with a variety of care services Celli Cottage.

127 older adults with social, cognitive, or physical limitations were given support through Day Break.

4309 older adults were provided nutritional meals in their homes or in a congregate dining setting, allowing them to maintain a healthy and independent lifestyle through Active Generations.

79 adults with disabilities were provided with specialized education and recreational opportunities for adults with disabilities along with reverse integration opportunities for Augustana University students by participating in FRIENDSLink.

5440 children ages 3 to 10 were provided education on topics such as burn prevention, smoke alarms, home escape plan, cooking safety, eating healthy, and physical wellness. 1207 new parents received resource booklets, temperament assessments and other resources through Avera McKennan's Success by 6 programs.

224 juvenile offenders participated in Teen Court or a Juvenile Diversion program through Boy Scouts.

1871 boys participated in Boy Scouts.

594 boys that would not otherwise be involved with Boy Scouts was able to participate in traditional scouting through ScoutReach.

485 youths received quality childcare and educational programs through Boys & Girls Clubs of the Sioux Empire's Early Childhood Education.

910 youths attended a safe, supervised, and engaged place that focuses on arts, education, and career development, health and life skills, character and leadership skills, and sports and recreation through Boys & Girls Clubs of the Sioux Empire's Empower Club.

426 middle and high school youths participated in a safe, engaging environment that helps youth build healthy relationships and encourages self-discipline, problem solving, and choice through Boys & Girls Clubs' The Club.

300 youths in rural school districts were provided with services designed to prevent substance abuse and bullying.

82 expectant mothers with limited resources received home visits from nurses during pregnancy and after delivery through the BrightStart Program.

1841 domestic violence victims were provided with immediate information and support through Children's Inn Crisis Intervention.

686 families were provided safe shelter at Children's Inn when fleeing from a domestic abuse situation.

132 individuals with disabilities were provided with recreational and social activities through DakotAbilities.

277 children were provided with dental screenings and services through Delta Dental's Mobile Dental Program.

21126 children received books from Dolly Parton's Imagination Library, a program that provides the opportunity for children 5 years of age and under to receive a book each month.

204 individuals impacted by addiction were provided with science-based peer coaching about addiction.

348 children with an incarcerated parent were provided support groups, family events and summer camp scholarships through Family Connection.

912 people received counseling through Family Service.

108 low-income children participated in a free after-school program through KIDSTOP.

5699 families received furniture through the Furniture Mission.

46931 individuals received referral information through the Helpline Center's 211.

4993 people were connected to the appropriate resources via a shared network to coordinate basic needs services Helpline Center's Network of Care.

115 isolated or homebound older adults were provided with personal phone calls to reduce loneliness and provide information about additional community services through Helpline Center's Outreach Support.

213 individuals utilized a 24 hour hotline during a crisis or participated in suicide trainings or support groups through Helpline Center's Suicide & Crisis Support.

10257 individuals received information and referrals to volunteer opportunities through Helpline Center.

73 individuals with disabilities received therapeutic horseback riding, hippotherapy, or other services through HorsePower.

99 children ages pre-birth to three years and their families were provided early head start services.

418 families with children were provided with transitional housing through Heartland House.

40 people were provided with educational programming related to mental health and suicide prevention on campuses with community organizations, and with employers in the Sioux Empire.

6 individuals and families were provided with financial support and resources after loosing a loved one to suicide.

45 students participated in hands-on, enriching activities during out of school time hours through Lutheran Social Services.

63 youths were provided with this alternative to juvenile detention, given supervision and learning support through Lutheran Social Services' Arise Youth Center.

513 individuals and families participated in therapy and counseling services through Lutheran Social Services.

84 older adults were matched with an adult volunteer for social and recreational opportunities through Lutheran Social Services' Better Together program.

2076 individuals utilized credit counseling through Lutheran Social Services.

167 youths received a supportive adult role model through Lutheran Social Service' Community Mentoring program. 265 adults who had committed domestic violence were provided with therapy groups that taught safe and healthy relationship skills through Lutheran Social Services' Family Violence Project.

38 disabled children and their siblings were provided with after-school and summer care through Lutheran Social Services of SD's Here4Youth program.

127 high school students were provided with a long-term volunteer mentor through LSS's High School Mentoring program.

1408 adult refugees and immigrants were provided with education and assistance.

240 students were provided professional mental health counseling sessions directly in their school through PATH.

28 parents who have been recently released from jail or prison were provided with support to re-integrate into their families and communities through Lutheran Social Services' Re-Entry Services.

42 children and their parents or caregivers participated in Sad Isn't Bad's grief support program.

42 vulnerable adults and financially limited people were provided with no-cost rides to medical appointments through Project Car's Healthy Rides.

126 individuals were partnered with a volunteer to learn to read through REACH.

1831 new parents received information about their child's development and temperament through Sanford Health's Success by 6 program.

344 families with children who were victims of abuse or sexual assault were provided with counseling and support through Sanford Health's Child's Voice Family Advocate.

501 children were able to participate in a youth development activity that they would otherwise not be able to due to a lack of financial resources through Connecting Kids.

524 abused or neglected children were provided a volunteer advocate, who served on the child's behalf through the overburdened juvenile court system through SF Area CASA.

201 children were provided with a scholarship to attend a quality preschool program through Sioux Falls Hope Coalition.

1873 children from low to moderate-income households to attend after school and summer enrichment programs and receive academic support services through Sioux Falls School District's Kids Inc. program.

68 three and four year olds were provided access to quality pre-kindergarten programs through the Preschool Opportunity Program of the Sioux Falls School District.

2665 students and their families were provided with support as they adjust to a new culture and language through Sioux Falls School District's School Home Refugee and Immigrant Academic Achievement Resources.

516 middle school youth were provided a safe after-school environment at all Sioux Falls' public middle schools.

499 single guests & families with children were provided the needed step between homelessness and long-term housing through St. Francis House.

1225 low-income people were provided with short-term financial assistance for basic needs.

44 homeless & at risk of becoming homeless families and individuals were provided with opportunities to obtain or retain safe and permanent housing.

541 victims and their families were provided with confidential counseling and advocacy services and a 24-hour hotline.

1087 individuals were provided with training and education to places of employment, schools, or community groups on issues of domestic violence and sexual assault.

181 victims were provided with needs outside of counseling. Includes resource referrals, safety planning, navigating court system, protection order assistance, and attending hearings.

443 individuals were provided with comprehensive services needed for the transition from a prior setting (incarceration, impatient treatment or other) to a less structured one.

4996 children ages zero to five enhanced their learning development through play by placing free, high quality toys in the hands of local children.

174 children received evaluation and treatment for communication disorders through USD Scottish Rite Children's Clinic.

52 youths ages 16-21 with housing, case management, life skills, employment education assistance, and aftercare services through VOA's Axis 180.

259 individuals participated in an outpatient counseling program, addressing the cooccurring (mental health and chemical dependency) concerns of youth, adults and families through volunteers. of America, Dakotas.

30 moms and families impacted by maternal incarceration received comprehensive wraparound services Volunteers of America, Dakotas' Look Up and Hope.

